

K-LOVE radio network has provided significant teaching and sources of excellent faith-based music to my family and I. It is the only family-oriented Christian radio station currently available on the FM waveband in the Denver region. This station provides a valuable alternative to the youth of this market with regard to music that promotes positive values of trust, hope, love, family.